

2006 Smart Growth Awards

Jack Kartez and Richard Barringer of the Muskie School at USM accepted an award for the video - "Growing Together: Consensus Building, Smart Growth and Community Change" The video was nominated for being "One of the best planning and consensus building tools available to the public and planners."

For more information, go to: <http://efc.muskie.usm.maine.edu/media/DVD.htm>

Tammy Scully accepted an award for the preservation and renovation of the pedestrian footbridge over the Passagassawaukeag River in Belfast. She accepted the award on behalf of Friends of the Bridge, and the city and people of Belfast for supporting this community project.

